Grant of certain lands in Sugakadarena halli, Sultanpet, Bavianaikanahalli, measg 33 A - 27 G. assessed at Rs 62-8-0 including the lands which were in the holding of Nara. Simha mestri and his brother as inam for maintenance of the above chattram &c on jodi tenure subject to the Rules contained in Appendix G. to the Land Revenue Rules of 1890

On the complaint made against the donor Narasimha mestri that the income of the lands was being mis himself, the Deputy Commissioner, on enquiry, directed that as the object of the grant was not fulfilled, the chattram, temple and well should be taken over under Govt. management and that for its supervision certain Dharmadarsis might be thereto.

On the back of the notice issued to the donor he has recorded thereon that all his endowments may be taken over by Government

Accordingly the temple and its endowments &c were taken over under Govt. management by the ~~Deputy Commissioner~~ Amildar.

It is reported that a sum of Rs 77-7-9 was realized from the inam lands during the year Parabhava

Under Secretary's note

The history of this case is given in the previous pages of this note. Narayana Menon constituted a Chairman, Kapil and while a Committee judicial powers for it. It is complained that the Committee having exceeded its powers the Dy Commr in March last removed it and appointed Narayana Menon and Govinda Menon in its place. The Dy Commr directed the first Committee to proceed.

The disputed lands belonged to the then existing Nos. 2 & 3 of Bhavanarikandi as assessed at Rs 32 and cultivable. Nothing is said about survey No. 7 the entire lands have been leased to the Nayar under Menon's relatives for Rs. 100 a year. A certain quantity of paddy which in any case not to Rs 100 in a year. The lessees have to pay the fixed rent as entered to Rs 9-13 4

A bund of approximate quantity to Rs
